

See the original, short play commissioned by . . .

In the Company of Angels'

L.A. Views: Hunger & The City

A Short Play Festival that Explores the Concept of Wanting More

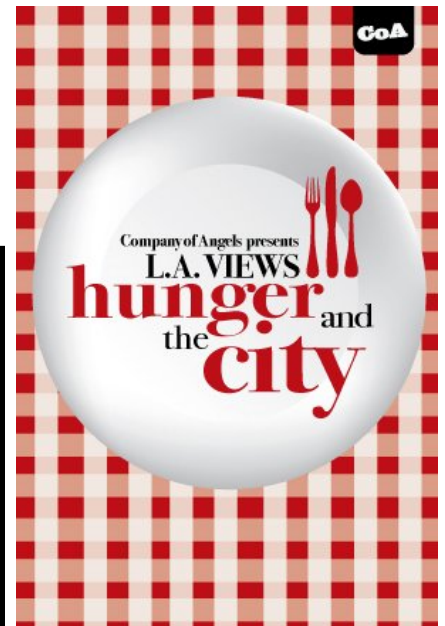

Inside The Black Box Theatre at The Alexandria
501 South Spring Street, Downtown Los Angeles, CA 90013

April 2—25, 2010

Special Performance for the Friends of AIDS Research Alliance

Sunday, April 11, 2010

7:00 pm Curtain

“Table for Three” a short play by Tira Palmquist

An HIV scientist in Los Angeles asks two strangers to meet over lunch. The first is a young, African American woman, who recently tested positive for HIV. The other is an older gay man living with AIDS for 25 years. Their hunger for a cure for AIDS becomes the main course.

Tira Palmquist teaches writing at the University of California, Irvine and at the Orange County School for the Arts. A member of Company of Angels and the Dramatist Guild, Ms. Palmquist's full-length scripts include Coyote Rising, Lost Nation, Age of Bees, and Frequency of Stars & Other Matter.

Current donors to AIDS Research Alliance can receive one free ticket

for each paid admission to the Sunday, April 11th performance.
For a free ticket, contact Art McDermott at (310) 358-2423 x 220 or amcdermott@aidresearch.org.

$20 Tickets for All Performances Available from Company of Angels